IN A NEW FORM

The Monthly Public Debt Statement is Issued.

TWO REPORTS ARE COMBINED.

The Secretary's Statement of the Public Debt, and the United States Treasurer's Monthly Statement of the Assets and Liabilities of the Government—Exact Condition of Our Finances at the Present Time.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The monthly public debt statement was issued yesterday in an entirely new form. It combines both the secretary's statement of the public debt, and the United States treasurer's monthly statement of assets and liabilities, heretofore issued separately.

Comparison with the last monthly statement and the statement issued July 1, 1890, shows an increase in the public debt during the past month of about five millions, and a net reduction during the past fiscal year of $20,000,000.

The surplus in the treasury today in the new form of statement is placed at $53,893,808, or about five millions less than a month ago, with no change in the interest bearing debt of the government during the past month. The bonded debt today is $610,529,120, made up in round numbers of $560,000,000 four, and $50,500,000 four-and-a-half per cent. bonds.

Secretary Foster last night gave out the following statement explanatory of the changed form of the monthly debt statement and the daily statement of cash in the treasury, which will hereafter be issued: "Heretofore the manner and make-up of the monthly statement required the showing of an increase or decrease in the public debt. Under this form it has happened on several occasions that when large purchases of bonds were made the statement following would show an increase of the public debt when a reduction had really been effected. This was owing to the fact that the principal and premium paid for bonds reduced the cash on hand beyond the amount of bonds actually redeemed."

The secretary has concluded after much thought on the subject to separate the statement of the debt from the statement of the cash in the treasury. Hereafter the statement of the cash on hand will show the net increase or decrease from month to month, and this statement will be a part of the form now adopted. In making up the new statement of the cash in the treasury the figures will plainly show the different kinds of money included in the total. Against this total will be stated the cash liabilities. This part of the new form will take the place of the assets, and liabilities statement heretofore issued by the treasurer.

In former debt statements the accrued interest and interest due and unpaid have appeared as current liabilities. These items have been eliminated. The secretary holds that if accrued interest may be charged as a liability against cash, then with equal propriety accrued salaries can be so charged, or in like manner the accrued liability for the construction of public buildings or for the improvement of rivers and harbors. The matured debt item is made up for the remnant of bond and other forms of indebtedness remaining unpaid from the foundation of the government. It is assumed that less than 25 per cent. of these will ever be presented for payment. They are now, as heretofore, carried on the debt statement, but not as a liability against cash.

The secretary also calls attention to four items of liability against the cash in the treasury amounting to $51,000,000, composed: First, of the five per cent. fund held for the redemption of uncirculated National bank notes, which sum can only be reduced by the retirement of National bank circulation. The secretary thinks this amount ought to be covered into the treasury, as was done recently for the fund for the redemption of failed and retired National banks. The probability is that this sum will be increased during the coming year instead of being reduced.

Second, the item of outstanding checks and drafts which rarely ever falls below $5,000,000.

Third, disbursing officers' balances now amounting to about thirty-four million dollars. This money is in the treasury and in the government depositories to the credit of disbursing officers, and seldom falls below the present amount.

Fourth, agency accounts made up mainly of postal revenues and subject to the draft of the postmaster general. This, too, rarely falls below $5,000,000.

These four items, he says, if held by a bank could be safely loaned up to nine-tenths of the total sum. The secretary will not hereafter deduct from his cash balance the amount on deposit in national banks nor the fractional silver coin on hand.

The government receipts from all sources during the past fiscal year aggregated $401,530,716, or about one million and a half less than during the preceding year. Customs receipts were $219,900,658, or about ten million less than during the preceding year; internal revenue receipts were $145,943,281, an increase over the preceding year of three million and a quarter, and receipts from miscellaneous sources were nearly thirty-six millions, about five millions greater than in the preceding year.

On the other hand, expenditures during the fiscal year just closed were $388,696,824, against $318,040,710 during the preceding year. Seventeen millions and a half of this increase is found in the pension charge of $124,415,110 for the past year. Civil and miscellaneous expenditures during the year amounted to $110,139,339, an increase over the preceding year of nearly thirty millions. Indian expenses were $8,526,188, or nearly two millions more than during the preceding year.

ceding year. Navy expenditures were $26,115,098, or $4,000,000 more than during the preceding year, and war department expenditures were $48,728,116, or $4,250,000 greater than in the preceding year. Thirty-seven million, one hundred and twenty-seven thousand two hundred and one dollars were paid out during the year for interest on the public debt, and $10,401,220 in premiums on $14,000,000 bonds purchased and redeemed during the year.

EXECUTIVE CHANGE OF BASE.

Hereafter the President Will Transact Business at Cape May.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The president will leave Washington Friday morning for Cape May, N. J., and for the next five or six weeks will transact all public business requiring his attention at that place.

Private Secretary Halford will join him there next week and establish an office at some convenient place near the president's cottage, and will arrange for telegraphic connection with the executive departments at Washington.

Mrs. Dimmick and Mrs. Parker, nieces of Mrs. Harrison, left Washington Wednesday for Cape May. The president will be accompanied by Lieutenant John F. Parker, U. S. N.

The White House will undergo extensive repairs during the summer and will not be habitable.

SEVERAL PEOPLE INJURED.

Collision Between a Cable Car and an Electric Car.

PITTSBURG, July 2.—At 10:10 o'clock yesterday morning cable car No. 7 on the Fifth avenue line and Duquesne electric car No. 3 collided at the crossing of the lines at South Highland and Ellsworth avenues, East Liberty. Both cars were badly smashed at their forward ends. J. W. Wessell and a man named Jacobs, passengers on the cable cars, were badly cut and bruised.

Motorman John Beck, on the Duquesne car, was terribly cut about the head and side, and received internal injuries which may prove fatal. Both cars were filled with passengers, who were badly frightened, but escaped serious injury. Gripman Hull, on the cable car was arrested for failing to obey the signal to stop his car until the electric car had passed.

THE WATCH TRUST.

After a Checkered Existence of Six Years It Will Soon Cease to Be.

NEW YORK, July 2.—The world says that the watch trust is going to pieces. The combination was formed in 1885. The first defection from the ironclad agreement to maintain prices was by the Dueber Watch Case company, two years ago. Two weeks ago Koch & Dryfus, a large Maiden Lane firm, who were to be blacklisted for cutting prices, obtained an injunction against such action on the part of the trust. Joseph Fahys & Company have since been expelled for cutting rates. The meeting at which this was done was a stormy one, and revealed a weakness in the organization. Fahys has applied to the courts, and the trust may be legally broken up if it does not fall to pieces.

THROUGH REMORSE.

Suicided, After Shooting His Neighbor Three Years Ago.

COLUMBIA, Mo., July 2.—"I am innocent," said Marshal Hultz, and then killed himself by cutting his throat with a pocketknife. The suicide is the last act of a deplorable tragedy which occurred three years ago. Allen Vwater and Marshal Hultz were neighbors, and both were prominent and respected, but the former had more of this world's goods than the latter, which caused a great deal of envy and jealousy. At a mass meeting Vwater made a magnificent subscription to a new railroad, and Hultz made a sneering remark that Vwater had better pay his debts. A quarrel ensued, in which Vwater was shot three times and killed.

Was He Murdered for Money?

NEW YORK, July 2.—The latest developments in the Brooklyn tragedy is that Theodore Larbig, who was killed by Darwin J. Miserole, was heavily insured. It is said that some time ago Larbig had his life insured for $15,000 in favor of Mrs. Comstock, who is now in jail as an accessory to the crime. It has been hinted as a possibility that the existence of the insurance policy might have served as a motive for getting Larbig out of the way. The district attorney refused to say if he intended to use the insurance policy story against Miserole and Mrs. Comstock at the trial.

Skipped With a Younger Man.

CANTON, O., July 2.—Two weeks ago Thomas Lee, a farmer of Elton, Wayne county, was married to Nancy McColin, a 23-year-old girl. People thought they were living together happily, but yesterday Lee told the police that Nancy had eloped with a young farmer named Fox, who had been a former suitor. The whereabouts of the couple is unknown. Lee, who is nearly seventy years old, takes the matter philosophically, and will not try to bring his erring wife back.

National Drill Tournament.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 2.—The national drill tournament was formally opened here yesterday, the last of the companies arriving and going into camp in the afternoon. The captains held a meeting and decided all disputed points and an hour later they were formally introduced to their sponsors. The Pugh Videttes, of Columbus, O., and Company A, Third regiment of Kentucky, drilled during the afternoon in the presence of several thousand people.

Australian Heavyweights Fight.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—The Australian heavyweights, Billy Smith and Jack Slavin, brother of Frank Slavin, met at the Occidental club Tuesday night in a finish fight for a purse of $1,150. Slavin scored a knock-out in the forty-eighth round.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

THURSDAY, JULY 2, 1891.

THAT excellent paper, the Danville Advocate, was twenty-six years old this week. Here's hoping it may live to celebrate its centennial.

INTEREST in the race for Appellate Judge is growing. It is now intimated that Judge Cooper, of Mt. Sterling, will enter the list against Judges Cole and Beckner. The election is a year off yet, and if the new Constitution is adopted the next Legislature may make a big change in the district.

Mr. Crawford.

Mr. L. J. Crawford, Republican candidate for Attorney General, was not greeted by a very large crowd at the court house last night. He is a young man and does not claim to be much of an orator. He talked for about an hour last night devoting his time principally to the new Constitution and to the alleged mismanagement of State affairs by the Democrats. He received as many, and perhaps more, courtesies from the Democrats while here than he did from his fellow Republicans.

The Timid Advertiser.

The timid advertiser generally begins by cutting down his space; he either sacrifices features that would make his announcement attractive; omits most important statements which should appear, or both, in order to save an inch or a few lines, as the case may be. Then he debates long concerning the paper to be used, and is more apt to regard the price than the quality offered him. And if, when he reaches the point, he does not finally decide to give it up, he proceeds with much fear and trembling—convinced after one or two insertions that he has made a great mistake, a little later that he is throwing away his money, and ere long probably seeks to cancel his orders to save greater loss. To begin right is the first and most important step toward success. "Whatever you do, do with your might." The dog that hangs his tail is already beaten. If you advertise, do it just as well as it can be done. Say the right things in the right way, and in an attractive form; use the best papers to reach the class of readers sought, and then keep on. The largest and most successful advertiser of the day borrowed from a friend a sufficient sum of money to pay for his first advertising in the daily papers of a Western city. His advertisement was good; it attracted attention and it paid. The proceeds were again similarly invested, and similar results followed. Nerve, or, as they say in the West, sand, coupled with judgment, goes a great way in advertising.—Printers' Ink.

Pithy Points From Washington.

Religion that don't make a man leave off liquor drinking is a spurious article.

Religion that don't make a man quit selling whisky is not the Christian religion.

Religion that makes a man think his own is right and all other men's wrong, is a vain one.

Religion that will allow a man to slip in a whisky den, by either the side or front door, is not one to be commended.

Religion that allows a man to go ahead and serve the devil with the same assiduity as before he espoused it, is a vain delusion.

Religion that will allow a man to stay away from the services of God's house upon every trivial excuse and go to other places through rain or shine, is a vain one.

Timely Advice.

Now is the time to provide yourself and family with a reliable remedy for bowel complaints. It is almost certain to be needed, and no family can afford to be without it. It costs but a trifling sum and may be the means of saving much suffering, if not life. There are many different remedies in use, but Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is undoubtedly the best. Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by Power & Reynolds.

THEY'RE FOR IT.

Judges of the Appellate and Superior Courts Favor the New Constitution.

Only One Exception, and That Is Judge Young—Opinions That Count.

It was stated a few days ago that all the Judges of the Court of Appeals and Superior Court were in favor of the new Constitution. This is true, with a single exception. Judge Young of the latter court is opposed to the new organic law. Judge Holt has not committed himself fully, but his expressions as far as he has gone are favorable.

The Louisville Post has been interviewing the Judges, and their opinions as published in that paper are given below. Commenting on the matter, the Post says:

"If anything were wanting to convince the people that the new Constitution is the best thing for their interest, that it is free from the objections urged against it by the opposition, the fact that the Judges composing the two highest courts of the Commonwealth are, with the exception of two, outspoken in its favor, should remove the last vestige of doubt. If the new organic law were so iniquitous as is claimed by some, such able jurists as Judges Pryor, Bennett, Lewis, Barbour and Yost would not be warmly advocating it. * * * The objection which controls Judge Young in the matter is the abolition of the Superior Court, to which bench he was recently elected. This is an objection which will not, however, strike the people so forcibly as it has the Judge. * * * *

"Judge Pryor stands at the very head of the Judiciary of the State. His long experience on the Court of Appeals bench, with his great natural ability and purity of character, give his opinions a value that attaches to no other man on the bench."

"Yes, I'm for the Constitution," said Judge Pryor to the Post, "and I think that the people are going to adopt it. It was made for the masses as against aggregated capital, and while no injustice has been done to the one the interests of the other are much better protected. It is vastly superior to the old Constitution. The vital points are the provisions with reference to taxation and those reforming the legislative department. The principle that the money of a bank should bear an equal share of the burdens of government with the poor man who has his all invested in a little home is sound in theory and eminently just in practice. The inhibition of special legislation is another strong feature and one that touches the interests of the people nearly.

The mere details of government are not vital to the people, and if mistakes have been made in them they can be remedied by means of the open clause. There are things in the new instrument that I object to, but these very matters might commend the instrument to somebody else. For instance, there is the secret ballot, which I don't fancy. The people generally, however, like it and want to give it a trial. The main thing is, however, the right of suffrage and the mere form of exercising it is not vital. It is a matter of impossibility to frame an organic law that would suit every one. There are too many conflicting interests and opinions to harmonize matters to that extent, but I think the gentlemen who shaped the new Constitution have succeeded reasonably well."

Judge Bennett, of the Court Appeals, said: "Yes, I'm for it. I think the good features largely counterbalance those that are objectionable, and through the medium of the open clause, we can get a first class instrument within ten years if we haven't what we want to start with. One of my objections is to the system of taxation. I don't think that banks ought to be taxed the same as other property when they are limited by law in the earning capacity of their money, the legal rate of interest having been fixed at 6 per cent. And then I think a mistake was made in prohibiting counties from voting aid to railroads. There ought simply to have been a restriction upon the extent of the aid to be given. However, as I have stated before, these objections are outweighed by the commendable features of the new instrument, and take it all in all it is better than the old."

Judge Lewis, also of the Court of Appeals, replied: "You can say I am strongly for it, because I think it a better instrument than the old. That equalization of taxation is one of its best features. Then, too," he continued, "the doing away with special legislation is going to be a great thing for our people; it will save the State thousands of dollars and stop the lobbying that has been going on. The open clause is a great feature, too. It will enable the people to adjust their organic law to their needs."

Judge Barbour, of the Superior Court bench, said: "I have been for it all the time. Take it generally and it is very much better than the old. I like the provisions on taxation, the inhibition of special legislation and the uniform system of laws provided to take the place of the present heterogeneous mass. Under the present arrangement we have in many cases laws that are almost as varied as the counties, the provisions and penalties being hardly the same in any two. Then there is the new Appellate Court system. The bar has been so unanimous in demanding it that I desire very much to see it tried."

Judge Yost of the Superior Court, has expressed his views on the subject freely heretofore, and they are warmly in favor of the new Constitution.

The Post has also obtained the opinion of Judge William Lindsay, of Frankfort, on the subject and he, too, is in favor of it. Judge Lindsay replied: "Well, let me say, to begin with, that I was opposed to the calling of a Constitutional convention. I saw in the drift of affairs a conflict between capital and those people who consider their interests inimical to aggregated wealth, and I feared that one or the other would get control of the body and would abuse its power in shaping the organic law. The convention, as is well known, was pervaded by a strong anti-corporation sentiment, but in looking over its work I was very agreeably surprised at the moderate use that was made of its power. What was done was in the direction of preventing corporations from abusing their powers."

And then among other things he said: "I think that the general system of taxation proposed by the new instrument is likely to result in a more uniform and equal apportionment of taxation than we have heretofore had. And while it may be doubtful whether it wouldn't have been better to have permitted localities to assist in the building of railroads in which they have a special interest, it is better to abolish that power than to have it subject to the abuses that have grown up under the existing Constitution. * * * I see nothing in the proposed Constitution that is likely to interfere with legitimate progress or to discourage the investment of capital in Kentucky interests. The truth is, we've been discounting the future during the last four or five years to a degree that is not entirely healthy, and with or without Constitutional changes we'll have to check speculation until we can realize some of the anticipations we've been going in debt for as though we already had the future in hand."

Speaking of Judge Lindsay, the Post says: "He has been called the Titan of the Kentucky bar. His opinion upon a law point carries with it more weight, both within and without the legal fraternity, than that of any practitioner in the Commonwealth. Not only is he well grounded in his profession, but his general knowledge is such as to make him an authority upon all public questions."

A stock company will be organized and the hotel will be enlarged and improved. Other parties interested are Judge Mat. Walton and Mr. J. Wood Browning, ex-citizens of Mason.

SEVENTEEN contestants for the gold medal to be given by the A. O. H. at their picnic, for the best jig dancer, have already entered the lists. They are a hardy set of lads and a bevy of buxom lassies, and each promises to dance the other down and all resolve to tire out the musicians. This feature alone should attract a throng to their picnic Saturday, July 4th.

THE patriotism of a man is measured by the zeal with which he commemorates the great days in his country's history. What finer commemoration can one make on July the 4th than to spend the warm afternoon in a beautiful grove, where the music of the national airs is gently mingled with the mirthful voices of the glee-ful celebrants? Grand A. O. H. picnic July 4th at Dieterich's beautiful grove.

MRS. JOHN RYAN, wife of the Superintendent of the County Infirmary, was driving east on Third street yesterday afternoon in a carriage when one of her children was jolted out of the vehicle near Limestone. One of the rear wheels passed over the little one, and Mr. John Ennis' buggy, which was just behind the carriage, also struck the child before the horse could be stopped. The little one's right hip was fractured and it received other injuries. It was resting as well as could be expected this morning.

PARTIES interested in the "Blue Lick Sanitarium and Hotel" met again at Park's Hill this week. The Carlisle Mercury says: "After some discussion, it was agreed to commit the final arrangement to a committee of five—Col. R. E. Edmonson, Lexington; Col. Frank S. Owens, Maysville; F. E. Congleton and T. J. Glenn, Carlisle, and James McClure, of Paris, who should make terms with either one, or both, the Upper and Lower Blue Lick Springs, for the use and sale of Blue Lick water, and to inquire into the probable cost of piping same to the grounds. Also to make terms with the camp ground company for Deering Park, and with Colonel Parks for the Chautauqua grounds, on the west, and report to an adjourned meeting on the 10th inst."

Railway News.

Mr. J. P. Lord, Traveling Auditor of the C. and O., and Mr. H. C. Hecker, Traveling Auditor of the L and N., were here this week transferring the stations to Mr. J. P. Gayle, the new agent.

The earnings of the L and N. for the third week in June were $350,545, an increase of $2,450 over the corresponding period last year. From July 1, 1890, to June 23, 1891, the earnings were $18,692,05, an increase of $276,191.

The Enquirer says: "G. P. A. Fuller, of the C. and O., is spending much of his time in Virginia watching the new line that opens up the middle of next month over to Hot Springs in that country. This will be very valuable addition to the road's attractions."

The C. and O.'s earnings for the third week of June show an increase of $14,269. The statement of the comparative earnings is as follows:

1891.....$153,882 28
1890.....139,855 32

Increase.....$ 14,026 96

Mr. F. W. Scarborough has been appointed Engineer Maintenance of Way of the Cincinnati division of the C. and O. with headquarters at Maysville. H. C. A Deaf Mute's Industry.

Ed. L. Jones, a deaf mute, is selling a compound that instantly removes all kinds of dirt and stains, such as grease, paint and fruit stains from clothing and carpets. It is certainly a good article, and is only ten cents a package, which makes it within the reach of all. He is an industrious young man and worthy of patronage, as he has an aged mother to support. He will call upon citizens at their residence.

MINER'S MAXIMS.

THE resemblance between Promise and Performance is very often limited to their alphabetical endings and beginnings.

An unfulfilled promise is as badly and irrevocably fractured as a shattered egg shell. The time to reflect is when you are making it, for reflection may not serve your purpose afterwards.

THE KAISER'S TOUR.

Amsterdam Does Honor to Germany's Emperor.

HIS WELCOME TO HOLLAND.

Queen Regent Emma Extends the Hospitalities of the Kingdom to the Royal Visitors in Person—Sale of American Autographs in London—Habor Movement in Austria—Other Foreign News.

AMSTERDAM, July 2.—The Hohenzollern, bearing the Emperor William of Germany and the imperial party, arrived here yesterday. The Dutch fleet saluted the kaiser, and the vessels, both of war and the merchant service, were gayly decorated, making a grand display. The emperor and empress were received by Queen Regent Emma, of Holland, who had sufficiently recovered from her recent illness to extend the hospitalities of the kingdom to the visitors in person.

The meeting of the kaiser and of the regent queen was most cordial. All the military and the diplomatic corps waited at the quay. The route to the palace was crowded, and the utmost enthusiasm prevailed. The kaiser afterward took a drive through the city, which was in holiday attire, many of the houses being lavishly covered with flags.

In the evening the square in front of the palace was illuminated by electric light and a concert given by massed military bands. This evening there will be a naval display and an exhibition of fireworks superior to anything of the kind in many years. Nautical clubs are also organizing for the festivities and, altogether, the citizens of Amsterdam seem bent on making the stay of the kaiser memorable. The kaiser and the kaisersine occupied a portion of the palace on Dam square. The queen, Wilhelmina, and the regent mother have also apartments in the palace.

Labor Movement in Austria.

LONDON, July 2.—The Austrian government, it is stated in a dispatch from Vienna, is following in the footsteps of the German kaiser, on the subject of labor reform. One of the measures which the government will earnestly support upon the reassembling of the reichsrath provides for the creation of institutions tending to facilitate conciliation between employers of labor and their workmen. The bill provides for the appointment of workingmen's syndicates, and for the establishment of boards of mediation. It is further proposed to institute trade corporations among mining operatives.

Strict Orders to Foreigners.

LONDON, July 2.—The correspondent of The Daily News at Odessa says a decree has been issued by the governor of Podolia, Volhynia and Kieff, which announces that all foreigners in those provinces must decide between leaving the country or becoming naturalized. In the event of selecting the latter alternative, they must remain in their present domiciles for an unbroken period of ten years. The decree is designed to force the hands of the vast numbers of Germans who are settled along the Russian side of the Austrian frontier.

American Autographs Sold in London.

LONDON, July 2.—At the auction of Dr. Raft's collection of American autographs yesterday a folio containing a full set of signs of the declaration of independence, of which only twenty-two complete sets are known to exist, brought £850. A folio of letters written by notable persons in the war for independence, brought £104, and a collection of autographs, literary and political, brought £297. The matter was mostly bought by dealers on orders from America.

The Pope Not Willing.

ROME, July 2.—His holiness, the pope, has written a letter to Cardinal Gibbons, in which he declares that he will never concede the demands made by Herr Cahensly in connection with the matter of Roman Catholic bishoprics in the United States. The pope has also rejected the petition of Poles resident in the United States, for the appointment of a Polish bishop.

Another War Scare.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 2.—The Novoe Vremya says that unless France and Russia make a formal alliance, the parties to the Dreibund will become so arrogant that a war will be provoked.

Revolution Suppressed.

LONDON, July 2.—Buenos Ayres dispatches say that the revolution which broke out in Catamarca has been suppressed, and the regular provincial government reinstated in power.

Eight Persons Drowned.

GLASGOW, July 2.—While a lug sail-boat was yesterday conveying a pleasure party across the bay of Ayr, from Largs to Rothesay, it capsized, and eight persons were drowned.

A Sentenced Prisoner's Hope.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 2.—Lemuel Reinhold, the attorney who was given ten years for burglary, took a farewell look at the city yesterday from the rear end of the train that bore him to the Northern penitentiary. Before going away Reinhold begged that mercy be shown him by the prosecutor, in case he should obtain a new trial. He intimated that he would be willing to plead guilty and take a couple of years in the event he is granted a new trial.

The Rain Wizard Successful.

CANTON, O., July 2.—True to prediction of Melbourne, the rain wizard, there was a lively shower last Tuesday night. Melbourne claims he has never failed and this rainfall gives credence to the statement. He has been offered a goodly sum to go to Kansas and operate. He will probably accept.

An Unfortunate Family.

ZANESVILLE, O., July 2.—Adolph Koch, the 10-year-old son of Rudolph Koch, was run over by a loaded car on the tile works inclined railway yesterday evening, receiving fatal injuries.

RIGID CROSS-EXAMINATION.

Contradictory Testimony Weaken the Case of Elliott's Defense.

COLUMBUS, O., July 2.—Calvin Johnson, Bill Elliott's side partner, who has been editing The Capital for him since his incarceration, was placed on the stand and subjected to a cross-examination, the rigidity of which almost made his teeth quake. The substance of his testimony was to show up a conversation with Osborn a few weeks before the tragedy, in which Osborn threatened to write Elliott up, disclosing to the public his family skeleton, and to force the latter to shoot him.

The state upon taking up the cross-examination asked Johnson if he did not, in the presence of several reporters, tell Osborn, a few days after he had been written up in The Capital, that if it had been him (the witness) he would have waded knee-deep in snow to Elliott's house to kill him. The witness replied that he could not remember any such statement, but did not deny having said it.

Further questioning tended to show that Johnson had been actively interested in Elliott's behalf and had carried news to him about the time of the newspaper controversy. His testimony in court differed very much from that given before the grand jury, as he admitted when closely questioned. These contradictions will weaken his evidence.

IOWA REPUBLICANS.

The State Convention Meets and Nominates a State Ticket.

CEDAR RAPIDS, July 2.—The Republican state convention was called to order at 11 o'clock yesterday morning in the Grand opera house. Attorney General Stone was chosen temporary chairman. After an address the usual committees were appointed, a recess taken and the committees went into session.

When the delegates reassembled at 2:15, ex-Congressman Gear, of Burlington, was elected permanent chairman by acclamation. He spoke at length on the political situation, both state and national. Nominations were then declared in order and the following ticket nominated: For governor, H. C. Wheeler, of Pottawattamie; for lieutenant governor, George VanHouten, of Lena; for supreme judge, S. M. Weaver, of Hardin; for superintendent of public instruction, O. H. Sabin, of Clinton; for railroad commissioner, S. F. Campbell, of Jasper.

PRODUCTION OF ALUMINUM.

The United States Now One of the Leading Producers of the Metal.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The census bureau, in a bulletin on the subject of aluminum, says: "This interesting metal has at last reached the stage of actual production, and the United States is now one of the leading producers. The all-important feature of the industry at present, however, is the effort by new processes to reduce the cost of making the metal. Prominence is, therefore, given to a concise and very exact resume of the methods of extraction of aluminum, and the results for a number of years, with other valuable information relating to this industry. The product of the census year 1889 was 47,468 pounds, including aluminum in alloys, valued at $97,338. The principal sources of aluminum have heretofore been cryolite from Greenland, and imported bauxite, but recent discoveries of bauxite have been made in Arkansas which will no doubt lead to the more extensive use of the domestic article."

College President Inaugurated.

Oberlin, O., July 2.—Professor W. R. Ballantine, a graduate of Rutgers' college, was yesterday inaugurated president of Oberlin college. In his inaugural address he spoke in favor of athletics, a decided step toward modern ideas for Oberlin, and in favor of the American college as opposed to the foreign university. Senator Sherman made a brief address after him.

Wealthy Farmer Bunkoed.

GREENVILLE, Pa., July 2.—William Mizener a wealthy farmer of West Salem township was bunkoed out of $3,000 yesterday of two confidence men who succeeded in getting him to play three card monte. Mizener did not have much cash at home and the stranger induced him to come to Greenville and get the money.

Victims of Love.

NEW YORK, July 2.—Alexander Wesse, aged 40, an agent for advertisements for The Deutsche Herald, shot a woman named Marie Hodig and then attempted suicide Wednesday. Five shots in all were fired by the would-be murderer and suicide. Both were removed to Bellevue hospital, where very little hope is entertained of their recovery.

Determined to Take Her Life.

PORTSMOUTH, O., July 2.—The community was startled yesterday to hear of the suicide of Mrs. Vendrean, a German lady. An attempt was made the night before by jumping into the cistern, but finding the opening too small, she finally succeeded by taking rough on rats. Temporary insanity is thought to be the cause.

Theatrical Manager Fails.

BOSTON, July 2.—J. M. Hill, the well-known theatrical manager of New York and Boston, has failed. Several attachments have been placed upon his property here. Mr. Hill is believed to be in New York, but search for him here failed to locate him. There are many rumors in regard to the assets, but nothing definite can be determined. Several are of the opinion that he will not be able to pay five cents on the dollar.

Missouri River Changes Its Course.

ATCHISON, Kan., July 2.—The Missouri river cut through Doniphan Point last night, transferring several thousand acres of land and water from Missouri to Kansas. Where Pleasant Little's house was on Monday is now the main channel of the river, and all that is left of Little's big farm is a small island.

Copyright Proclaimed.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The president has issued a proclamation granting copyright privileges in the United States to citizens and subjects of Belgium, France, Great Britain and Switzerland.
